Assignment Feedback

QQ1a: The student has partially addressed BI reporting practices by mentioning report authoring QQ1C: The response is repetitive and unclear. It should have addressed only data clustering and QQ2: The response accurately defines the need for data pre-processing, including handling incompacts of the explanation of data reduction, including both dimensionality reduction and data compacts. There are some inaccuracies in the response, such as incorrectly mentioning the type of QQ5a: Clear differentiation between classification and clustering is seen, with the student couples. The answer correctly provides a brief overview of decision trees and its application in QQ6a: The student comprehensively described the integration of Business Intelligence and ERP and QQ6B: Although the response gives a basic overview of the roles of analytics in Business Intelligence. The definitions and features of WEKA and RapidMiner software are covered well in the response.